

Report of workshop on "Gender Sensitization" conducted by Ashoka ACBCS NSS unit in association with SPPU University"

Introduction: There is a difference in the anatomy of women and men, but the reason for all the discrimination between women and men in society is not necessarily to be found in their physical differences. The concept of femininity and masculinity. These ideas deeply influence human behavior. Stereotypes of femininity and masculinity mold women and men against each other with the passage of time and the efforts of social change, ideas of gender are changing/opening up. This workshop is planned to create awareness among NSS volunteers importance of treatment of all genders equally.

National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Ashoka Center for Business and Computer Studies (ACBCS), Chandsi affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune (SPPU) University, NAAC accredited A Grade, offering courses of BBA, BBA-CA, BSC-CS, B.Com & MSc-CA, MBA & M.Com (Distance learning Centre) arranged a one day workshop on "Gender Sensitization" under value education in association with Savitribai Phule Pune University.

Objective of the Session: To raise awareness among students about Gender equality and legal aspects

Day & Date : Monday, 16.12.2024

Workshop Time : 10.00 AM to 05:00 PM

Venue : ACBCS Seminar Hall, Nashik

10:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. : Registration & Tea

NSS Program Officer

NSS Program Officer
Ashoka Center For Business
and Computer Studies
D-SF-112

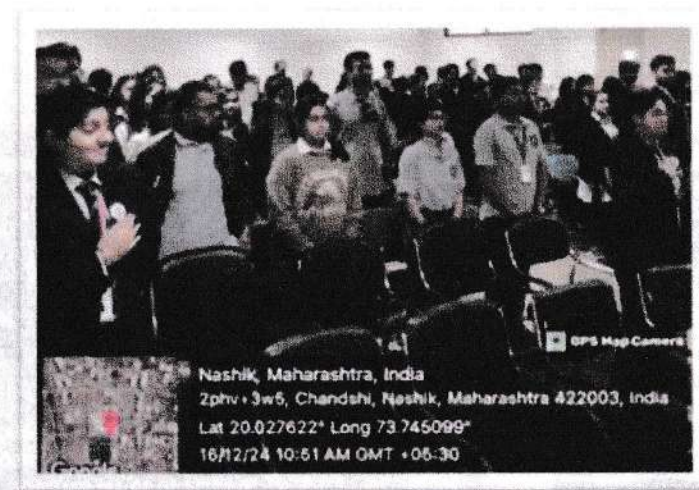

Principal

PRINCIPAL
Ashoka Education Foundation
Ashoka Center for Business and Computer Studies, Nashik

10:30 a.m. to 11:00 am

Inauguration: Chief Guest Mr. Shripad Burkule (Assistant Registrar, SPPU Nashik Sub-division)

The program commenced with inauguration session with chief guest Mr. Shripad Burkule, assistant registrar, Nashik sub-centre SPPU, and AEF administrator Dr. Narendra Telrandhe. It commenced "Sarasvati vandana" and NSS "Lakshya geet" song was sung by all participants followed by welcome speech by NSS Program Officer Mr. Lokesh Surana, he narrated students to use imagination power for the change required in the society through NSS platform, AEF Administrator address to the students to take maximum advantage of NSS activities to build a strong nation. Chief Guest Mr. Shripad Burkule congratulated college to arrange the workshop for students and also narrated university level facilities for the students at Nashik new sub-center building. Workshop was declared to be open by Vande Mataram song.

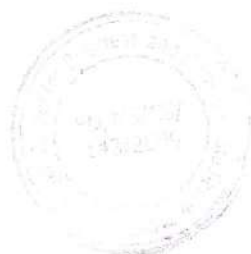

NSS Program Officer

NSS Program Officer
Ashoka Center For Business
and Computer Studies
D-SF-112

Principal

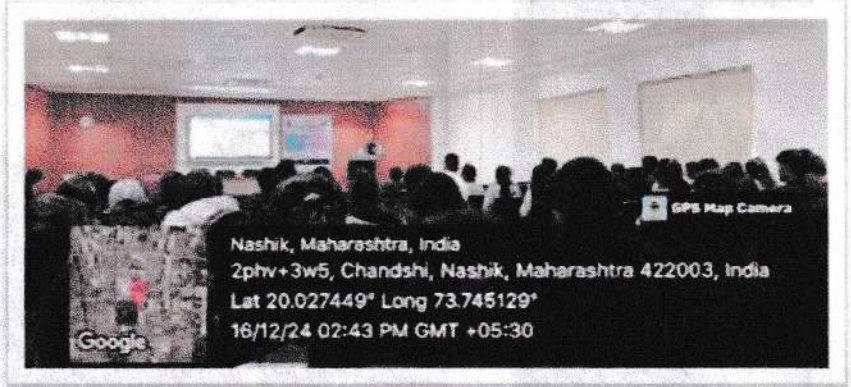

PRINCIPAL
Ashoka Education Foundation
Ashoka Center for Business and
Computer Studies, Nashik

02:00 p.m. to 03:30 p.m.

Technical session 2. "Legal aspects in gender inequality"

Second technical session commenced post lunch of renowned criminal practitioner lawyer Mr.Sachin Bhate. In his session, Adv.Bhate explained students examples of stereotype, feminist and patriarchy concepts. He enumerated various real life legal cases on genders issues. He also focused on benefits available in law for various genders. Students question and answer session were conducted related with legal aspects. The session was very bold and practical issues for gender awareness.

04:00 pm to 05:00 pm

Validictory Session : Chief Guest : Dr Ravindra Ahire (Nashik District Area Coordinator)

Validictory session commenced with feedback of participants of various colleges. They responded with learning points in the session and appreciated food and other arrangements made by ACBCS college. Dr.Ravindra Ahire appealed to the students to imbed the learning from the workshop in real life. The participants certificate distribution with the hands of Dr.Ahire & Mr.Surana. Total 105 participant attended the workshop from ACBCS, NBT law college, CMCS college, ACE college, KTHM college, Sandip institute of Pharmacy, PVG college, Panchavati college and others. Workshop concluded with National Anthem.

NSS Program Officer

NSS Program Officer
Ashoka Center For Business
and Computer Studies
D-SF-112

Principal

PRINCIPAL
Ashoka Education Foundation
Ashoka Center for Business
Computer Studies, Nashik

Technical session 1. "Need of Gender sensitization"

First Technical session was conducted by eminent speaker on gender equality Mr. Ajit Takke, he narrated various examples through which gender inequality is followed from ancient time. He explained the difference between term gender and sex, and 56 different types of genders which exist among the society. Also he emphasized the way through which coming generation must bring gender equality and acceptance to be given to various genders. The session was interactive and followed with questions of participants

12:30 pm to 02:00 pm

Lunch was arranged with menu of : Butter Dal Khichada, Matki Usal, Phulka, Fryums

NSS Program Officer

[Signature]

NSS Program Officer
Ashoka Center For Business
and Computer Studies
D-SF-112

Principal

[Signature]

PRINCIPAL
Ashoka Education Foundation
Ashoka Center for Business and
Computer Studies, Nashik

This workshop was staff coordinated by Mr.Lokesh Surana, Mrs.Rekha Shegokar, Mr.Ankit Kale Dr.Rashmi Bomble,

Students coordinator Mr.Atharva Shinde, Farhan Shaikh, Maahee Goda, Palak Dhanrajani, Kajal Nagdev, Roshni Dhanrajani, Swarali Kulkarni, Amruta Dudhe, Khushi Gajjar, Lokesh Patil, Harpal Sisodiya, Swami Rajput, Kaushik Pandey, Nirbhay Singh Prerna Rane, Arunima Suresh, Diya Avlani, Soniya Sindhi, Nayan Bhattad, Devesh Mahajan, Nikita Choudhary, Deven Sonawane

under the guidance of Principal Dr.P.A.Ghosh, Vice Principal Dr,Harsha Patil. AEF Hon Chairman Dr.Ashokji Katariya, AEF Secretary Mr.Shrikant Shukla, AEF Administrator Dr,Narendra Telrandhe congratulated for successful conduction of workshop.

NSS Program Officer

[Signature]
NSS Program Officer
 Ashoka Center For Business
 and Computer Studies
 D-SF-112

Principal

[Signature]
PRINCIPAL
 Ashoka Education Foundation
 Ashoka Center for Business &
 Computer Studies, Nashik